Welcome Message from the Executive Director

The Need for True Interpreters

Dearly Beloved, I bring you warm greetings in the name of Jesus Christ our Lord and Savior. Welcome to May 2022; a month of glad tidings which will usher in a fresh season for each and every one joined to this commission.

At Entrepreneurs In Christ, we are obsessed with the Kingdom of God. We are not just entrepreneurs, much rather we are called to show forth God's marvelous light in the industry and nations we live in. The 'Interpreter's Anointing' is one of such unique ways we present the light of this unseen Kingdom to men. The fact that the Kingdom of God exists in a realm that cannot be seen does not change the fact that it exists. So, we begin this month by looking closely at what the interpreter's anointing is all about.

God can only work with the knowledge you have hence our fervent duty to educate our members so we are qualified to receive what the Spirit of God is pouring out in these last days.

Anointing is the empowerment God places on an individual or corporate body to do the supernatural, naturally. Anointings are a key part of our daily existence as Kingdom Entrepreneurs, so, we must seek and crave the various types of anointings God makes available with a holy desperation. Thus, the interpreter's anointing, is the empowerment God grants a person to bring forth the right counsel as seen from the perspective of the realm of the Spirit, not just from human logic. Due to the way this anointing works, a true interpreter will walk in a dimension of the Spirit of Wisdom and Counsel to ensure they relay the message God gave with precision and accuracy.

Our key scripture on this topic is taken from Job 33:14-28. Summary of a few high points so we can get a snapshot of the essence of this teaching;

✓ (Verse 14) For God does speak, in one way or another yet men perceive it not. In a dream, in a vision of the night, when deep sleep falls on people, as they slumber in their beds.

✓ (Verse 16) God may speak in their ears and terrify them with warnings to turn them from wrongdoing and keep them from pride.

✓ (Verse 19) Or someone may be chastened on a bed of pain with constant distress in their bones, so that their body finds food repulsive and their soul loathes the choicest meal.

✓ (Verse 23) Yet if there is an "interpreter" at their side, a messenger, one in a thousand sent to tell them how to be upright"

Job 33 paints the picture of a young man by the name Elihu, speaking to Job about his condition while his other two friends had failed to bring the right perspective and consolation during his affliction.

Elihu, although youngest of all three friends spoke under the unction of the Interpreter's anointing! Through his words, we begin to see life not from Job's perspective but from God's perspective! Elihu was the first to disclose to us that God sends warnings through dreams, but if dreams don't get your attention, He may allow pain. It will be important for us to read the entire chapter of Job 33 to get a better picture of his narrative. Now, pain in this context does not necessarily mean physical pain, it could also mean financial pain (debt or being broke), emotional pain, spiritual affliction, psychological pain, etc. Through Elihu's perspective we understand how pain can remind us and bring us back to the loving arms of our Father. "Whom the Lord loves, He chastises and scourges every son whom He receives" - Hebrews 12:6.

Interpreters are scarce. Job 33 reveals in verse 23 that this anointing may be on one person out of a thousand people. A country or state as vast and large as it is, may have just one interpreter. The primary duty of an interpreter is to point men to the way of uprightness. In this modern age we live in, it is clear everyone does what they seem right in their own sight. As Entrepreneurs, this is more so when we believe nobody is watching our every move. God who sees in secret and knows all secrets anoints interpreters to reveal the darkest secrets in the heart of men but most importantly, the aches in the heart of God. The Old Testament is littered with stories of men and prophets who operated in a dimension of this anointing. However, Jesus Christ was the first man who walked in the fullness of this grace. He reconciled God and Man through His death, resurrection and ascension thereby pointing humanity in the way of righteousness with God.

A person or organization can walk 50 years on the earth, having never stumbled across a true interpreter and thus, not know what he or she was created on the earth to do. Such a person may live feeling as though a void exists that they cannot fill within their minds. The Interpreter's anointing brings a fresh perspective into how we are to give God glory through our existence. It corrects wrong mindsets and liberates men from the grip of sin that may condemn them to damnation.

An encounter with a true interpreter refocuses prayers by revealing the source of issues and helps men find solutions as they begin to pray rightly. The interpreter's anointing is often the difference between life and death as the interpreter has the right to stand in the gap as a mediator while appealing to God for man's sake.

Scriptures (parables) can be interpreted, the gift of tongues, destiny blueprints, dreams, Signs, Events, Seasons, Hunger, Motives, Sounds from Heaven, etc can all be interpreted when this anointing is stirred up within you. I should mention that this anointing, like the other anointings God gives is for the benefit of those around you. It may not necessarily apply to yourself but to help others around you and bring them closer to experiencing the reality of God's unseen Kingdom. When this anointing rests upon a man or woman, you have the honor of interpreting messages from God and also relaying the ransom paid already to redeem men from the pit of hell or death (Job 33:24-28). In this day and age, the ultimate ransom paid which is to be used in negotiating a person's salvation is the blood of Jesus.

The Bible declares, there is no other name given amongst men, whereby we must be saved. Also, Hebrews 10:4 "for the blood of bulls and goats could not take away sins, therefore, when Christ came into the world, He said, sacrifice and offering you did not desire, but a body you prepared for me with burnt offerings and sin offerings you were not pleased, then I said, Here I am, I have come to do your will, my God" - Jesus was and remains the ultimate sacrifice through which interpreters can step into the position of mediators to save men from God's wrath or judgement.

The prerequisite to receiving this anointing is true spiritual hunger. "Blessed are those who hunger and thirst for righteousness for they shall be filled" Mathew 5:6. If you truly crave this anointing, let your spirit be open as you study the book of Job chapter 33. The Holy Spirit may just qualify you as the next Elihu around your family and friends.

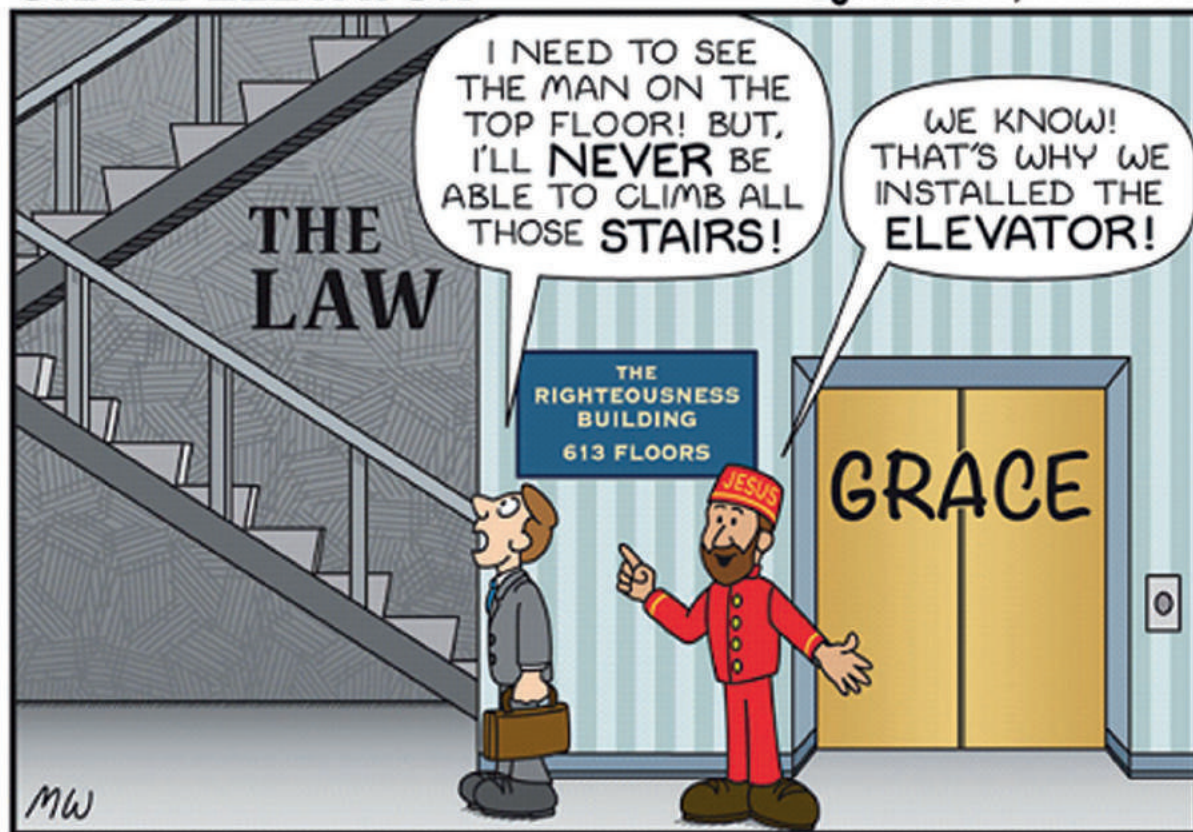

Thanks for reading and God bless you

THEME OF THE MONTH EXPLAINED

The Interpreter's Anointing

The Interpreter's anointing is the power or ability given by God to understand and convey the real plan of God in any situation we are faced with.

It is the empowerment from God to bring wisdom and understanding into a circumstance.

It is an illumination of the soul to see things clearly from God's perspective. Very important!

Habakkuk 2:2 and 3 says and I quote:

2 Then the LORD answered me and said:

"Write the vision

And make it plain on tablets,

That he may run who reads it.

3 For the vision is yet for an appointed time;

But at the end it will speak, and it will not lie.

Though it tarries, wait for it;

Because it will surely come,

It will not tarry.

This is God telling the Prophet to pen down the vision and also informing him that there is an appointed time for the manifestation of the vision. Daniel, Joseph, the Lord Jesus, Peter and so many prophets functioned under this anointing. Daniel was able to interpret the King's dreams. Joseph did same in his days. Peter was also able to interpret the outpouring of the Holy Spirit in the book of Acts chapter 2:14-20.

The Lord Jesus was the most misunderstood by the people of His day even by the Jews.

When He said to Nicodemus in John Chapter 3 verse 3 – 13. You must be born again before you can enter the kingdom of God, the old man was so confused that the Lord Jesus said to him in verse 10; "Are you the teacher of Israel, and do not know these things?"

It is not by how knowledgeable you are but God's oil resting on you. Interpreters are there to reveal the heart of God and to give understanding of God's perfect will in any situation. The purpose of this anointing is to guide people or a nation into God's perfect will and not His permissive will. This anointing is also given by God to guide and lead people into God's perfect timing in His calendar.

Benefits of the Interpreter's anointing.

- 1) Peace; When you have an in depth understanding of God's will in a matter, it releases peace in your heart.
- 2) Divine guidance in prayer; Understanding God's perfect will helps us to pray in line with His will and hence we are led by the Spirit into it.
- 3) Divine direction through the Holy Spirit.
- 4) Divine wisdom; The wisdom of God is imparted and in full operation.
- 5) The interpreter's anointing brings reward and promotion.

HOW TO ACCESS THIS ANOINTING

Everything is initiated in the kingdom of God through prayer. Prayer is the main avenue to access God and His blessings. The method and mode of our prayer in such situation is not bombarding heaven with our own prayers but coming before Him to inquire, to ask question about the word God spoke to you through His word or a prophetic word or a personal situation that you may lack understanding of His own perspective regarding that issue. There is a peculiarity to every dream, vision, word you received from God or even His dealings.

Kindly note, an interpreter must carry the heart of God. Your heart becomes one with His, so that, even when He signals, you can interpret. It is all about understanding things from God's standpoint. When you carry His heart, you now possess the power to communicate what God is saying accurately to your generation.

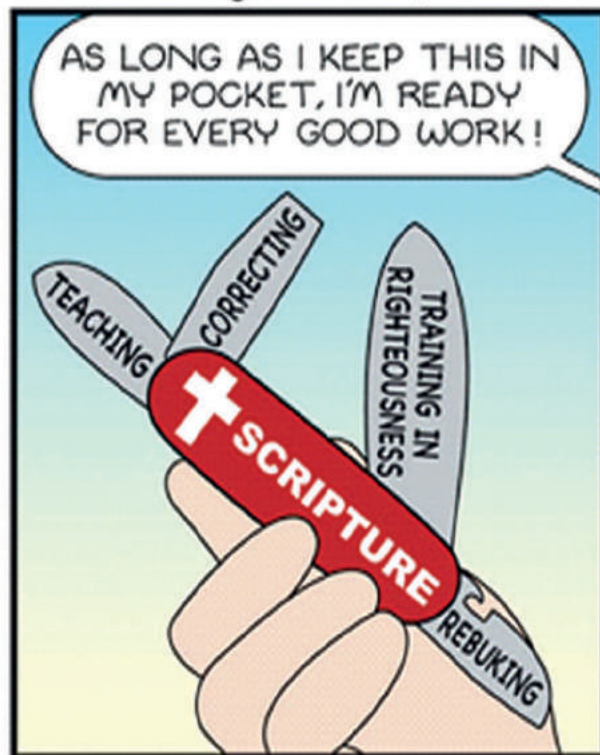

Prayer: Father, possess my heart completely Oh Lord. I open the door of my heart today in Jesus' name. Amen.
Remain blessed.
