The TEACHING Anointing

1 JOHN 2:27

Life is a School

Dynamics of the teaching anointing

1 John 2:27, "But the anointing that you received from him abides in you, and you have no need that anyone should teach you. But as his anointing teaches you about everything, and is true, and is no lie—just as it has taught you, abide in him."

Greetings my fellow Entrepreneurs and welcome to the tenth month of 2022. In this critical hour, it's imperative we break down the teaching anointing for the benefit of all our members in their commitment towards marketplace ministry. There are a few scriptures we can reference to explain the importance of the teaching anointing. However, I'll place slight emphasis on 1st John 2:27.

Indeed, the anointing we have received from him truly abides in us. The Teaching Anointing is a function of the anointing within and thus can be very domineering within the vessel it's flowing through. I remember a few months ago, I had the pleasure of giving a charge to a small body of believers. The words burned inside me like fire shut up in my bones, by the time I was done teaching, I found it very difficult to step down and have regular conversations with the people that came for the meeting. The anointing was so strong on me that day I spoke to everyone as if I was still teaching them.

The teaching anointing is one of the rare graces the Lord gives a true disciple tasked with the honor of expanding the hearts of men in Kingdom matters. The teaching anointing itself is given to aid in breaking down the systems, core-values, principles and laws of the unseen Kingdom and King to whom we pledge our allegiance as Kingdom Entrepreneurs.

A true teacher is a rare gift to the body of Christ and his listeners get to unwrap new layers of this gift each service they come to listen. An encounter with a man or woman who carries the teaching anointing makes all the difference as it warms up a person's heart to the authenticity and reveals the power in the word of God.

A core challenge of most Kingdom entrepreneurs is that they give up too soon on our savior to whom they may have professed their love to a few months into their Christian experience. Even the Bible says in Proverbs 13:12 that "hope deferred makes the heart sick" and so the teaching anointing is structured in such a way that it brings hope and confirms the faith of Kingdom-Entrepreneurs so they have the courage and tenacity to press on in the wild world of business despite the world mocking at their true convictions. It is perhaps one of the most important anointings a believer can receive as its primary goal is to build each member of the body of Christ into the fullness of the stature of the Christ.

It is often said that preachers set men on fire but teachers build men. Mediocre teachers are everywhere but great teachers are rare. Just because a person can analyze one or two scriptures doesn't necessarily confer upon them the teaching anointing. It takes an average of 10 years for the Kingdom of God to churn out a bona-fide teacher who knows how to yield to the demands of the teaching anointing on his/her life.

I have often said, the hallmark of this anointing is that when it is operational there would be a soft glow, a fire burning in the hearts of men as the word of God is being broken down. If you have not had this experience before then perhaps you haven't experienced the teaching anointing. A man or woman who operates optimally in this grace is very confident of what he has and what he is speaking about.

Now, the teaching anointing is more a focus on the individual than on the subject matter of the day. What I mean is this, God will have worked so much on the individual to be used as a vessel that such a man's brokenness will open up cracks in which the Spirit of God can flow into him and through which the Spirit of God can flow out of him to reach an audience. The Spirit emphasis is 90% on the individual and 10% on the sermon.

The word of God in itself is already anointed so nothing can be done to change the word. However, the individual to teach or preach may not be anointed and so the scriptures will remain a closed book both to him and the recipients of his message. To stir up the teaching anointing, every teacher must consciously spend time in prayer and learn how to navigate to a place in the spirit where he can pick up on the inspiration of the Holy Spirit for that meeting.

Any true teaching ministry stems out of an effective prayer life. A man or woman who does not understand this fact will never be saturated enough by the Holy Spirit to emit words that become spirit and life to transform the lives of the recipients. Such a man will also never be able to partner with the spirit of revelation.

In my opinion, there are four other endowments from Heaven needed to forge an effective teacher. The first is the spirit of revelation, the second is the spirit of wisdom, the third is the spirit of knowledge and the fourth is the spirit of understanding.

A man can have one and not have the other three. That's because each of them is a separate anointing needed for effective Kingdom service delivery. Thus, the teaching anointing is not a standalone grace but rather is dependent on the operation of a few other important anointings to function optimally and edify the body of Christ.

It is the operation of the spirit of revelation that brings fresh manna (divine secrets) to a man who has been appointed by Heaven to carry the teaching anointing to a generation. Without the operation of the spirit of revelation, a teacher won't be able to take his audience beyond the surface level of what's written in scripture. The letter kills but the spirit (of revelation) gives life. After that, every teacher needs an encounter with these three that happen to be three out of the seven spirits of God. The spirit of knowledge, wisdom and understanding.

The spirit of knowledge renews the teacher's mind into the context of the mind of Christ (how Jesus would have communicated the message received) so he can break down the revelations into the frame of reference that the audience can gladly receive.

The operation of the Spirit of wisdom captures and decodes the current emphasis of what's on the heart of God and when (appropriate timing) to release revelation knowledge in a sequential manner so that it's as fresh as intended when communicated to the 'right' audience. Emphasis on 'right' because a teacher may be unwise and insensitive so he delivers the right message to the wrong audience.

However important the first two are, it is the spirit of understanding that ties back each revelation to scripture or helps a teacher extract each lesson from the revelation knowledge received, so it becomes applicable to the average believer in the course of their daily business activities.

In conclusion, every born-again Christian has received an anointing. That anointing in its simplest element has the capacity to teach you any and everything that pertains to the truth. However, the anointing can only teach us on the condition that we abide in Christ Jesus. The teaching anointing is therefore operational and linked only to the connection we have in Christ Jesus. Hence, if at any time you stop being in Christ you may operate in any other type of anointing known to man except the one true grace that teaches all things.

This anointing is a powerful display of the grace and operation of the Holy Spirit to bring men to the awareness of their rights in Christ Jesus and their place in Kingdom service. It is reserved only for true disciples of Jesus.

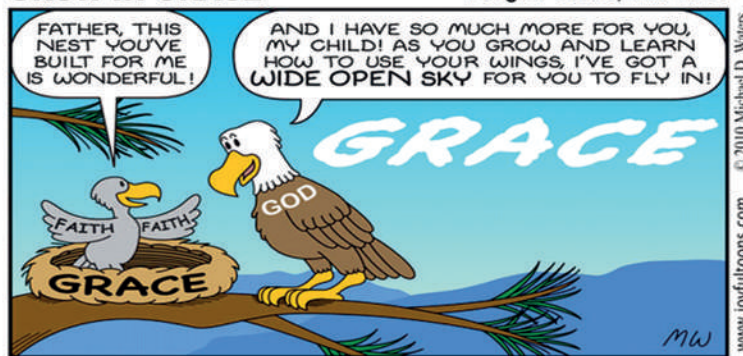

Please watch out for the last two business network fellowships this month as we will be imparting the teaching anointing. If you've really desired this grace, it may just be your chance to operate in it. Stay blessed and thank you for being a valuable member of our community

The Teaching Anointing.

A teacher, is an instructor acknowledged for their mastery in their field of learning; in Scripture, a Bible teacher's assignment is to bring the people of God into maturity in Christ.

A teacher's assignment is to cause spiritual growth and transformation of both the teacher and the learner and hereby establish the hearers by grace so that they are not tossed to and fro by every wind of doctrine. Ephesians 4:8-16

In John 14:25-26, we are informed about a teacher that God will send us in the person of the Holy Spirit. The anointing. "All this I have spoken to you while I am still with you. But the Advocate, the Holy Spirit, whom the Father will send in My name, will teach you all things and will remind you of everything I have told you."

1 John 2:27 But the anointing which you have received from Him abides in you, and you do not need that anyone teach you; but as the same anointing teaches you concerning all things, and is true, and is not a lie, and just as it has taught you, you will abide in Him.

The teaching anointing is hereby defined as "The Holy Spirit coming upon the teacher, the human vessel in a special manner, giving insight, understanding, power, and enabling, through the Spirit to the teacher in order that the teacher may do his work in a manner that goes beyond simple human efforts.

The anointing of the Spirit for teaching and learning is a rich and multifaceted experience. When the teaching anointing comes in sovereign visitation, there are different dimensions of operation and power present in order to manifest the gifts of the Holy Spirit listed in 1 Corinthians 12.

Teaching anointing is an empowering of the Holy Spirit for teachers who want to impact the lives of the people they teach. It is the power to do something that cannot be done by mere human efforts.

Such ministry is full of power to heal, deliver and to bring salvation to the lost souls.

The teaching anointing illuminate the soul of man with scriptures to dispel darkness in a believer's soul.

There are benefits to the teaching anointing and the benefits are:

When this anointing comes upon you, it is to communicate with power, signs and wonders from God to the listeners.

In John chapter 3 starting from verse 1 we see Nicodemus attest to the truth about the teaching anointing of the Lord Jesus and I read: 1. Now there was a man of the Pharisees named Nicodemus, a leader of the Jews. 2. He came to Jesus at night and said, "Rabbi, we know that You are a teacher who has come from God. For no one could perform the signs You are doing if God were not with him."

The hallmark of this teaching anointing is signs and wonders.

When the spirit or the anointing comes upon you it is always God trying to reach people through you and as the word is being released the gifts of the Spirit in 1 Corinthians 12:7-21 is available to heal and deliver.

Where the word of a king is there is power. Hallelujah!

The teaching anointing is so necessary because of errors when we teach without Him, because the root cause of errors in teaching could be traced to flesh or even demonic.

Apostle James warned the church in James 3:1-2 about the judgment of wrong teachers. 1. My brethren, let not many of you become teachers, knowing that we shall receive a stricter judgment. 2. For we all stumble in many things. If anyone does not stumble in word, he is a perfect man, able also to bridle the whole body.

God's position remains that a teacher must teach under the control of His anointing and this is because wrong teachings can lead generations off course and will be hard to recover because people's minds are shaped by what they hear and strongholds are built within the minds.

The only way a negative stronghold can also be destroyed is through the anointing of God. Without the presence of the Spirit of God who is the Anointing bondage and problems remain the same.

We see also in James Chapter 3 verses 13-17 that the heart of a teacher must be pure and humble before God in order that His word will not be polluted due to the negative state of a teacher's heart.

Let's read. 13. Who is wise and understanding among you? Let him show by good conduct that his works are done in the meekness of wisdom.

14. But if you have bitter envy and self-seeking in your hearts, do not boast and lie against the truth. 15. This wisdom does not descend from above, but is earthly, sensual, demonic. 16. For where envy and self-seeking exist, confusion and all evil things are there. 17. But the wisdom that is from above is first pure, then peaceable, gentle, willing to yield, full of mercy and good fruits, without partiality and without hypocrisy.

The state of the heart of a teacher or any vessel to discharge the word of God is so important and right posture of the heart is so paramount.

We must periodically submit and lay our hearts on God's altar for purification and to ask the Lord to purge our hearts of any hidden nature that's not of God hidden within.

I've noticed that a good man or woman can also have things locked up in their hearts without the awareness of its existence within us until God shines His light on it.

Hence, to walk in the purity of the teaching anointing, the purification and consecration of the soul is highly important.

Hope you are blessed. Remain blessed. Bye for now.
