THE GRACE FOR Access

Excerpt from the Message - GRACE FOR ACCESS

by Damola Adelakun

Christianity offers a unique perspective on how to engage Jesus Christ as the way, the truth, and the light. The most explored dimensions of Christ are the way and the light, with the truth often taking a backseat. However, the grace for access - or entry - is the key to unlocking all other graces, and it is the way that leads to God the Father. In this article, we will explore what the grace for access entails and how it grants us entry into new realms in the spirit.

Access means entry or promotion into a new realm. Personally, I define this Grace for Access as what reconciles two different realities tied to one person." Let's start by looking at how grace is configured in the Spirit. For instance, we have two classifications for grace, and they are Common and Special grace. Common grace is what the Almighty God bestows on all people. Examples are salvation and speaking in tongues. Even though most Christians hardly use the latter. On the other side, special grace is what God gives people who go the extra mile in their quest to draw closer to Him and to carry out the assignment of the great commission here on earth. The prophetic and the healing anointing is an example of what men carry under special grace. If we desire to move from common grace to special grace and explore God the way astronauts explore space, we do it by faith, as driven by spiritual hunger. When God sees a Kingdom entrepreneurs reasonability to be passionate about His Kingdom, He grants such the grace for access into new realms.

To fully access the grace of God, we need to understand Jesus Christ as the way to the Father. In Portuguese and Greek, the word for access is transliterated as H-O-D-O-S, which means an access road. It is this grace for access that we need to unlock all other graces and obtaining mercy as the basis through which grace is supplied. Ephesians 2:18 says that through Jesus Christ, we have access to the Father by one Spirit.

Now, the grace for access is a two-way stream. In the realm of men, God wants to partner with us and have us grant Him access into our families by virtue of our priesthood. Priesthood is meant to create a bridge, which is the access for divinity to come in and fix situations in the lives of our family members. On the other hand, a believer must never stay stagnant, he or she needs to enter new realms in God, and that is done by the grace for access. However, many people do not take their priesthood seriously to grant access to God to do what He wants to do in their families.

Furthermore, there is a place we need to reach in the spirit to have the grace for access, and that is the extent to which the Spirit is supplied. The key to access is ever-increasing knowledge of the Son of God and thankfulness for His ultimate sacrifice. When a believer is limited in this knowledge, he or she becomes unable to fully access the mind of God and conform to His standards, we end up having two different versions of ourselves - one driven by the Spirit and one driven by the flesh.

The grace for access is what grants us a time-based reality, whereby our dreams begin to match up with our earthly reality. It is important to note that everything we see in our dreams requires the grace for access. For example, if you dream of being a successful businessperson but wake up struggling in life, it is because you do not have the key to access to unlock what is hanging in the spirit so that it can be deployed into the natural world.

We also have access to spiritual resources, as mentioned in 2 Peter 1:3. The Bible says that God has given us all things that pertains to life and godliness through His divine power. This power has made us citizens of the kingdom of heaven, and it has two streams: life and godliness.

Under the life stream, we have relationships, health, wealth, and other things that pertain to our lives. On the other side, under godliness, we have dimensions in the spirit, such as the word of knowledge or the gift of prophecy. Both dimensions are accessed through the knowledge of Jesus Christ, who called us by His glory and virtue.

Ephesians 1:3 tells us that it is access to this power that makes both streams available to us. We can use it to channel resources towards life or towards godliness. Jesus is the access point to the room where every spiritual blessing is trapped. Once we get into that room of Jesus Christ, we can access all spiritual blessings.

The more we grow in our knowledge of Christ, the more equipped we become as believers. Moreso, the key to accessing God's divine power and resources is through the knowledge of Christ. This key reconciles the immature part of us with the mature part. It is the pre-requisite to every spiritual and physical ambition we nurture. We also have access to God's presence and access to transcend realms of the spirit. Note that, to touch the deep things of God, it's done by access.

In addition, having the Holy Spirit does not necessarily mean we have access to the resource of His power. We need to demonstrate faithfulness in stewardship and grow in the knowledge of Christ to access His divine power which grants us access to things that pertain to life and godliness. When we have the grace for access, our dreams become reality, and we can walk in power and authority on the earth.

In conclusion, the grace for access is the key to unlocking all other graces. To access this grace, we need to understand Jesus Christ as the way to the Father, and we need to come to a certain level of maturity in the knowledge of the Christ & a close walk with the Holy Spirit. It is through and with this grace for access, we move into the realm of special grace to do the work of God.

EXCERPT FROM THE TEACHING - GRACE FOR ACCESS by Min. -Yemi Akins

One of the many definitions of grace is that grace is an ability given by God to man for breakthrough. It is also what you get that you never qualify for. Example;

1. At salvation when we only had to believe in our heart and confess with our mouth Christ as our Lord and Saviour
2. In Genesis 39:4-5, Joseph found favour and grace in the sight of God. This made his master put him as an overseer over his household.
3. In Galatians 1:13-16, we read the account of Apostle Paul, how he persecuted the Church of Christ while he was practicing Judaism, yet it pleased God to separate him and give him grace to become one of the greatest Apostles of Christ Jesus
- 4.2 Corinthians 12:9 speaks about how grace helped Paul kept his faith because one of the purposes of grace is to help us keep our faith through challenges.

Therefore, every effort we exert should be filled by grace because grace is the love of God expressed towards us and helping us accomplish task, we are not able accomplish in natural sense. This can be experienced in the place of prayer when you feel no urge to pray but when the grace of God is upon you, that becomes a simple task.

Grace is also God's supernatural empowerment to help us accomplish his divine purpose on earth. In Hebrews 2:9, Jesus by the grace of God was able to endure the death on the cross to redeem humanity. Also, in Hebrews 4:14-15 we see how grace helped Jesus Christ stay sinless all through his walk and work on earth. Now, we too can obtain mercy and find grace in times of need because of the finish work of Christ on the cross. Hebrews 4:16.

Grace is for the weak and poor. Hebrews 2:16, tells us that God gives us aid as the seed of Abraham to accomplish things we naturally will not.

How to enter the grace of God?

By faith and truth. God reveals knowledge to us through truth because knowledge is like light that shines into your soul and illuminate our entire being. The knowledge that come through truth is like a shield that protects. Psalms 91:1-4. Psalms 51:6. Knowledge is truth, light and strength.

After you've received knowledge from the ministry of the Holy Spirit understanding also comes. Proverbs 16:32. This helps us know how to apply wisdom acceptably. Everything we receive is because of grace, not works. Genesis 1. Grace is all of God's blessing made available for humanity. We see this grace at work where God created everything available before creating man.

Grace is to help us. Hebrews 4:16. Because God never promised day without night, therefore, God's grace is made available to help through the night.

What happens to a person who doesn't have the Holy Spirit?

1. You receive the grace in vain. 2 Corinthian 6:1.
2. Fall short of the grace. Hebrews 12:16
3. Frustrate God's grace. Galatians 2:21
4. Fall from grace. Galatians 5:4

You can grow in grace. 2 Peter 3:18
Grace can be multiplied. 2 Peter 1:2

In summary, grace is in Christ Jesus and we are also in Him, this means we have everything around us.
